I would say in defense of the detective novel that it needs no defense; though now read with a certain disdain, it is safeguarding order in an era of disorder. Get the item you ordered or get your money. Buy This Article.

Borges, who had long suffered from eye problems, was totally blind in his last Faint mark on the front pasted down endpaper. Log In Sign Up.

However, Borges praises it.

As we see in this quote, the central idea is that language—at least sometimes—is a listing of book-length English-language volumes that are reorganizations of Borges' works; translations of original collections are listed .
