To a child of such sensibilities the cutting off of heads is savage and gruesome and should not be given a chance to impress so prominently. This book was written more than 70 years ago and is very popular across many generations of readers.

The little child is open to emotional appeal, his heart is tender and he is simple fairy tale, because it presents an organized form of human experience, helps to organize the mind and gives to play the values of human life. He notes the solicitude of the Mother of the Seven Kids in guarding them from the Wolf.
