Then, revise the poem according to their feedback. Abstract, yes, and if not full of purple flowers, full of something bad, anyway—somebody kneeling in front of somebody else holding some kind of ridiculous object! Sorry, I haven't posted in a while, I've been really busy!

This is a poem about the love that can be lost and found. Thank you, Jan, for your encouragement! You can tell if love is unconditional. Remember .

Write to him exactly how you feel and say exactly what you mean, no beating around the bush. That are more objective criticism of love affairs like William Carlos Williams' book "Journey To Love," can reach a level of originality without being too sentimental. A Girl Called Tazmin.
