I would not say this is one of the best crime fiction books I have ever read – but it packs a lot of plot into a compact book. This is good reasoning but I should like to redress the issue slightly by emphasizing that it is, after all, an on-screen effect that is the object of analysis. Akademie der Wissenschaften.

The hooligan is not given individual psychological features but is a stock character. I was saddened to read of the author's sudden death, especially as at the end I felt that he had a following book in mind. Here he published his two chief works, Pia desideria and Allgemeine Gottesgelehrtheit and began that form of pastoral work which resulted in the movement called Pietism.
