However, it is not exhaustive. The natural convergence of legal systems' evolution is a process underway, albeit too slow. In such cases, the Court of Cassation must also explain how to interpret the massima. Closesearch. With this last expression, we are referring, within the Italian legal order, to so called "material laws", consisting of acts passed by bodies different from the legislature, but having the "force of law". An English translation of the text of the Italian Constitution revised and updated to can currently be found in A. Italia, C. Thomas, "Carla. Law 20 April No. Legislation 1.
