Plus: Apsley Cherry-Garrard! Martian Andy Weir Science Fiction In this gripping story of one man's struggle for survival on Mars, the author uses his nerd's knowledge of space to great effect, creating a story that is futuristic and science-technical, yet understandable and entirely plausible, as if it all could actually happen in the near future. These had destroyed the great old Catholic Irish families, her father said, forcing them to divide their lands until nothing was left, depriving the Catholic Irish of education and a voice in politics, refusing them government jobs and the right to maintain their religion.
