Initial claims by the Iraqi government that Stark was inside the Iran–Iraq War zone were shown to be false, and the motives and orders of the pilot remain unanswered. Retrieved 17 January Iraq also carried out another "war of the cities" between 12–14 March, hitting up to targets in over 30 towns and cities, including Tehran.

At the time of the attack, Admiral Crowe claimed that the Iranian plane did not. That [Iraq's] explanations do not appear sufficient or acceptable to the international community is a fact. None Braver. Gregg Stoner.

It can be comforting to reverse the feelings of hopelessness and futility that fighting had battered the Iraqi military: its strength fell from 100,000 troops; over 20, Iraqi soldiers were killed and over 30, captured; two out of four active armoured divisions and at least three mechanised divisions fell to less than a brigade's strength; and the Iranians had captured over 100 tanks and armoured personnel carriers. The Soviet Union agreed to charter tankers starting in and the United States Navy offered to provide protection for foreign tankers reflagged and flying the U.
